

A large 19th century equestrian bronze of William of orange by Nieuwerkerke

Sold

Description

A good example of the mid 19th century equestrian bronze of William of orange , this is a smaller version of the over life size monument by Emile De Nieuwerkerke, the original commissioned by King William for his original name sake

We are always looking to acquire an item of a similar nature.