

An early carriage clock in a gilt-engraved case

£1,695

Description

An early example of a gilt brass carriage clock with engraved case and bevelled glass, the eight-day movement striking the hour and a passing half hour, and with an early form of Swiss lever, with a plain steel uncompensated balance. In the manner of Paul Garnier
Circa 1840