

18th century mahogany bracket clock

Sold

REF: 279767

Description

A George III period bell top mahogany cased eight day bracket clock of superb colour and patination, the eight day twin train movement with pull repeat now converted to anchor escapement has a finely engraved back plate. Signed on the dial Richard Carrington, London